

The school break bell rang, Martina and Silvia finished their snack and, after asking the teacher's permission, strolled a little in the corridor.

When they arrive in front of the bathroom door, they find Camilla standing in front of them. She says that Silvia should spend the break only with her because they are best friends. Silvia shouldn't be with Martina.

Silvia and Camilla leave together, while Martina...

Paul, Matt and William, accompanied by their dads, arrive at the basketball court near the playground in their village. After a few rounds of free throws, Peter arrives and asks them to play a two-on-two game: Matt and Paul challenge William and Peter.

At each of their teammate's mistakes, however, Peter taunts him with increasingly nasty words.

William, in front of his friends, becomes increasingly ashamed and...

It is art class: the teacher tells the children that the first one to finish the drawing would become her assistant for two days. Michael finishes before all the others and the teacher sends him out to make photocopies. Francesco, his desk-mate, would have loved to finish first to become the teacher's assistant and, with a red pen, ruins his friend's drawing.

When Michael returns to class and sees what has happened to his work he remains motionless, incredulous...

It is a spring afternoon, Cecilia and Kevin are playing in the park on the slide, when Joel, together with his aunt, arrives at the playground. The child immediately runs to the slide because he wants to go on it. Cecilia would like it to be just her and Kevin on the slide, so just before Joel starts to slide she gives him a strong push which causes him to fall to the ground. Joel...

During gymnastics, the teacher asks the children to form two teams for the volleyball match. Michela and Philip are the two team leaders and, in turn, choose their teammates. Richard is left last and gets very angry: he absolutely does not want to be on Michela's team. When Richard, red in the face, approaches her, Michela ...

It is break time, Giulia has been dreaming of eating the chocolate muffin her mother had prepared for her snack. Before starting to eat she goes to the bathroom to wash her hands, but when she gets back to class Tomas is eating her snack. Giulia tries to get her snack back, but Tomas keeps eating. Then Giulia..

Francis started attending a new school some time ago. He is very shy and clumsy and his classmates immediately started calling him 'Carrot' for his red hair. Francesco is tired of the situation and...

It's a summer morning, Mark and Louise are at summer camp and they're doing an art workshop. They notice Nick's drawing and start mocking him because they consider his work the ugliest of all. Nick gets more and more nervous, he's tired of the situation and...
